MUD RUNNERS GET CHANCE

RAIN TRANSFORMS GOING AT PINLICO AND CARD IS BADLY RIDDLED.

Favorites Fail to Cut Much Figure in the Results. Eulalia May Being Only Successful First Choice-Coup with High Private.

Baltimore, Md., October 20.—For the first time during the present meeting at Pimlico mud runners were given an opportunity of showing their merit. The track was deep and heavy close to the rail, while the going on the outside remained fairly good. The change in conditions resulted in numerous scratches, the fields in a majority of the races being materially reduced by withdrawals. The "dopensters" evidently figured on a fast track, all but one of the favorites being beaten. A couple of them were at odds-on. Eulalia May, which beat a poor band of maidens in the opening dash, was the sole successful choice. The Hildreth stable furnished two of the beaten favorites in Montgomery and Hampton Court, both of which were even money choices.

band of maidens in the opening dash, was the sole successful choice. The Hildreth stable furnished two of the beaten favorites in Montgomery and Hampton Court, both of which were even money choices.

Bad riding cut some figure in the results, Davidson's handling of The Weikin in the steeplecase and Killingsworth's ride on Busy tending to rob both of these horses of first money. The Virginians put another one of their famous "good things" over when High Private cantered home with an eightlengths lead in the closing race. The latter led from start to finish and at no time during the running was the result in doubt.

Reybourn was permitted to steal away into a long lead during the first quarter of the fifth race and the advantage that he gained in the early stages proved too much for Busy to overcome, so while the latter was undoubtedly best, he was torced to be content with second place, beaten a length and a half in a driving finish. Davidson made the same mistake that Killingsworth did. In the steeplechase he took hold of the favorite, The Weikin, and allowed her to drop out of contention on the first turn of the field. The result was that when he made his run he was unable to overcome the drawntage which Jesuit had gained and the finish round her in second place.

The stewards have strived at no decision as yet in the Garner case. They are still busy investigating the race and something of a sensational nature may develop.

S. C. Hildreth announced that he would ship nine of his yearlings south with the division of his stable that will race at Jacksonville this winter, Mr. Hildreth has also decided to send Fitz Herbert south and the latter will be entered in all of the stakes that the conditions will permit.

The stewards issued the following ruling in connection with jockey Glass' ride on Blackford recently: "Investigation of jockey Glass' handling of Blackford October 12, has failed to develop any substantial evidence of intentional wrongdoing on his part. But it is ruled that his suspension shall continue f

OAKLAND STABLES ARE FILLING.

Twelve Carloads of Racers Reached Coast Track Yesterday-Total of 1,200 Expected.

San Francisco, Cal.. October 20.—Twelve carloads of horses arrived at Oakland today, ten coming by special train over the Western Pacific from Ogden and the other two from Vancouver. Three more carloads are due tomorrow from the same points and William Walker is expected from Toronto with two carloads.

william Walker is expected from Toronto with two carloads.

Applications have been received by Secretary Treat of the New California Jockey Club for 943 stalls and it is expected there will be in the neighborhood of 1,200 horses at Oakland track and in its vicinity when the season is well under way. A number of stables are expected this week from Canada, among them those of R. J. Mackenzie, M. C. Pritchard and B. S. Michell. G. H. Keene has notified super-intendent Grant that J. O. Keene will bring thirty-six horses from Kentucky. Judge Pettingill wrote that Earl Linnell will leave for California at the close of the Pimlico meeting October 31.

Among the owners represented in the Ogden shipment are William Cahill. W. M. Cain, G. H. Keene, C. P. Lamar, Harry Mack, W. E. Trapp, George Pelter, Fred Foster, J. F. Moore, J. B. Dunn, J. H. Frye, L. T. Whitchill and F. M. Hopper.

Owners who arrived from Vancouver are D. S. Fountain. H. B. Mulkey. C. W. Chappell. J. L. Brown, W. H. Travers, J. A. McFarlin and A. L. Denny.

Six horses owned by Charles J. Quinn arrived from Sheepshead Bay in charge of Morris Bernard. Sixty and Sea Cliff are among them. Andy Blakeley is cur route from New York with nine horses.

Jockey Eddie Dugan wrote to a brother informing him that he will arrive here about November 1.

WANT $15,000 FOR GLORIO.

Louisville, Ky., October 20.—Isidor Schlessinger, the Austrian horseman, priced Glorio and was surprised to learn that W. P. & L. E. Fine ask $15,000 for the son of Galveston. This five-year-old is just the sort of horse the Austrian is endeavoring to secure for export, but as he does not care to race any horse he purchases and is only buying for breeding purposes, he has no intention of going anywhere hear the price asked for Glorio.

THIRTY LEADING MONEY-WINNING HORSES

The running of the two divisions of the Matron Stakes on the first day of the present Pimlico meeting had the effect of advancing Bashti and Naushon to second and third places in the year's list of winning horses. There is thus presented the undesirable spectacle of the first three places being filled by two-year-olds. Then come the four-year-old, and the three-year-olds, Sweep and Dalmatian, but Olambala and Sweep have been retired to winter quarters and Dalmatian is in England. It results that the supremacy of the two-year-olds is to remain undisturbed, no older horse now having even a remote chance to overhaul the leaders. At present the standing of the thirty best winners is as follows:

FOXHALL'S GRANDSON A DERBY WINNER.

The Australian Jockey Club Derby was run at Sydney, New South Waies, October 1. It resulted in a decided upset in falling to the 20 to 1 outsider, Tananni, a grandson of the famous American-bred horse, Foxhall. London Sporting Life gives the fol-

Betting: Three to 1 against Beverage, 6 to 1 against Bobadea, and 20 to 1 against Tanami, by two lengths. Fourteen ran. Time, 2:361.

"Last senson Beverage retired into winter quarters with the reputation of being one of the best colts bred in the commonwealth. Readers of the Sporting Life will remember that a few months ago reference was made to the magnificent form which he showed at the V. R. C. autumn meeting, where in the Sires Produce and Ascot Vale Stakes he met and readily defeated (giving from seven to ten pounds) both the animals which finished in front of him for the A. J. C. Derby—a result which the public evidently did not anticipate. As a two-year-old Tanami always competed in high-class company, but generally found something to beat him, though on several occasions he was excused on the ground that he was a bad starter. His breeding, however, scarcely inspired the belief that he was a Derby horse in embryo, for he descends from a mare which, although inscribed in the Stud Book, cannot be traced for much more than a half century. Imported Dalmeny, his sire, is by Foxhall, out of Bagdad, by Cameliard, and the presence of the name of Foxhall in a pedigree has generally been considered an almost finsuperable harrier to success. At any rate, as Dalmeny managed to sire the winners of $15,345 in 1909-10, this opinion now requires some modification.

"Bohadea, which ran second, was frequently upsides with Tanami as a juvenile, and each defeated the other in turn. He, however, only managed to capture one race in ten essays, but ran second in the Champagne Stakes, receiving ten pounds from Beverage, which was a close-up fourth. Curlously enough, in the Melbourne Cup both colts have been awarded the same impost, 109 pounds, but Tanami will now have to put up ten pounds extra. They were handicapped to receive eight pounds, and as no three-year-old has ever won the Melbourne Cup carrying 112 pounds and upwards, readers will gather a tolerably good idea of what manner of reputation Beverage enjoys in the land of his birth-list dam is Wild Rose, by Melos (son of Goldsbrough) from La Vivandiere, by Marvellous, Bobadea is by Bobadii (also a son of Bill of Portlandout of Ardea, by Wallace, son of Carbine. It remains to be seen whether Reve

Went to post at 4:12. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won handlily, second and third driving. REY-BOURN set the pace and was permitted to draw away into a long lead in the first quarter, but was firing at the end and doing his best to hold his lead. BUSY was taken under restraint through the first half and, responding when called on, was a fast gaining second. MONTGOMERY was outrun all the way and ran a very had race.
